However, I'd like to say that there aren't only Spanish-speaking players in this game. I'm from Asia, and it's really hard for me to understand the Spanish words and concepts in the game, so I'd like it if you could please change that back to English. My selected Language is English in game, however I've noticed a lot of Spanish words coming up and it's just really hard for me. Second of all, the diamonds, I'm not saying that the buying diamonds option should be completely lost however, if you could get around 50 diamonds, maybe each time you leveled up or ranked up, it would be great. The diamond prices are so high yet we don't get diamonds in game and have to pay a lot for a few starter packs. That's a really big issue if you ask me. However I really love free fire so I'm hoping that soon enough, these issues would be resolved as well! It's a fun game but poor/no CUSTOMER service. I submit a ticket for an Item I acquired to lvl up a character and it's bugged. I couldn't use it. After I submit the ticket explaining the situation I never heard from them. Ever... And it's not the first time I have submitted a ticket in all the time playing, and nothing. But they do send you emails if you have to get off a ranking game because you're having a real-life situation at your house. The game by itself is fun unless you encounter "The hackers" which are a lot. "Players", which they don't disband. (Accordingly to them they do. But when you see their account, they have been there for a long time.) In the game, you can see the player blinking all around the map, running at a ridiculous speed, or not getting hit by shots no matter how many are shooting at him, but they one-shot you just by aiming at you. I know what is a good player vs a hacker. "Computer programmed commands" (Mods). That makes the game worthless to play. It is a competition against a none winning event. You're just destined to die and be the joke of the game. Does Customer service do something? It's like an old drunken record played over and over, as the answering machine when you do not want to be bothered. So I give one star for the poor/non-existing CUSTOMER service that ruins the game. This game is fun and all, me and my cousins play it all the time but this game has some problems that need to be fixed if you want a stable community. 1st problem is that when I'm playing ranked and I die early or in the middle of the match it'll bring me down let's say 36 points and it drops me from diamond 1 to platinum 4, but when I go up 36 points it doesn't move me up as much, it says I went up 36 but it feels like I moved up 10 points. 2nd problem is that sometimes when aiming at the head it goes to the body instead of shooting the head, this gets annoying because Me or one of my cousins will be close or far range and will be aiming at the head of an enemy and it'll drop down to the body which in many scenarios it will get us killed. 3rd problem is that if a car runs over you, it shouldn't take away all of your health away considering that in this game it's easy to run over someone especially with the monster truck. 4th problem is the fact that we can't get the ninja skin due to the cg15 being taken out of the game therefore we can't have the skin. That's all the problems that I can think of as of right now, so please if you can fix this problems it would be great.
